

Commercial Opportunities in Europe:

Wednesday, Sept. 17, 2003

415 East Blvd., Williamston, NC

Learn more about export opportunities in Romania, Macedonia, and Kosovo by attending a presentation with Central and Eastern Europe Business Information Center (CEEbic) Commercial Specialists from the U.S. Embassies and Consulates in these countries. In addition, officials with the United States Department of Commerce U.S. Export Assistance Center-Raleigh will be on hand to discuss how their office is able to support your business with export opportunities to other countries.

Topics to be discussed include: how to do business in Central and Eastern Europe, economic factors to consider, and how your company can take advantage of existing and future opportunities.

The U.S. Department of Commerce, North Carolina's Northeast Partnership, NC State University Industrial Extension Service, Martin Community College, and the NC TeleCenter are co-sponsoring this information-packed, hands-on seminar.

There is a $10 fee for lunch and space is limited! To reserve your seat, please complete and return the attached registration form by Friday, Sept. 12.

The Commercial Specialists will be available immediately following the program for a limited number of one-on-one appointments. These will be scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis and advance reservations are accepted. Please indicate on the registration form if you would like to schedule an appointment.
